A Tapestry of Enduring Stories

The "Tia Lola Stories" is a collection of nine endearing tales that celebrate the power of family bonds and the enduring spirit of adventure. Each story transports us to a different setting, from a bustling Mexican village to a snowy New England town. Along the way, we encounter a cast of unforgettable characters, including Tia Lola's mischievous nephew, Miguel, and her wise and loving mother, Abuela.

In "Tia Lola Comes to Visit Stay," the titular character arrives in a small New England town to visit her niece and nephew. With her arrival, she brings a whirlwind of color and chaos, transforming the lives of everyone she meets. From teaching her nephew to dance the merengue to sharing her ancestral wisdom, Tia Lola weaves her way into the fabric of the family, leaving an indelible mark on their hearts.

In "Tia Lola and the Three Kings Day," we join Tia Lola and her family as they celebrate the beloved Mexican holiday. Amidst the festivities, Tia Lola shares the story of her own childhood and the importance of tradition. As the children listen, they are captivated by her vivid storytelling and the enduring bonds that connect generations.
