How to play

To play this game, you will need the following items:

- A list of alphabet letters (you can use magnetic letters, letter blocks, or even just pieces of paper with letters written on them)
- A small toy or object that represents each letter
- A blindfold

To start the game, blindfold your child and then place one of the toys or objects in their hand. Ask them to guess which letter the object represents.

If they guess correctly, they get to keep the object. If they guess incorrectly, put the object back in the pile and try again.

You can make the game more challenging by using more difficult objects or by limiting the number of guesses your child gets. You can also make the game more fun by adding a timer or by playing in teams.
