Hank the Cowdog is a one-of-a-kind character who will quickly become a favorite of children and adults alike. He's a lovable, lazy dog who just wants to be left alone to sleep. But when his family needs him, he's always there to save the day.

In Let Sleeping Dogs Lie, Hank is enjoying a peaceful nap when he's rudely awakened by a bunch of noisy varmints. Hank is not amused, and he lets the varmints know it. But the varmints don't take Hank seriously, and they continue to make noise. So Hank decides to teach them a lesson they'll never forget.

Let Sleeping Dogs Lie is a funny and heartwarming story that teaches kids the importance of respecting others. It's also a great book for kids who love animals, humor, and adventure.
