

Mastering FASB Codification and IFRSs: The Casebook Approach

In today's globalized economy, it is essential for accountants and financial professionals to have a deep understanding of both FASB Codification and IFRSs. These two sets of accounting standards provide the framework for financial reporting in the United States and around the world.

Mastering FASB Codification and IFRSs can be a challenge, but it is essential for anyone who wants to succeed in the accounting profession. This casebook approach will provide you with the practical insights and skills you need to master these complex standards.

FASB Codification is the official source of authoritative U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). It is issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB). FASB Codification is a comprehensive set of accounting standards that cover all aspects of financial reporting, from the recognition of revenue to the disclosure of financial information.
