A Lyrical Exploration of Geometry's Most Perfect Form

In the realm of shapes, the circle stands alone as a symbol of unity, harmony, and infinite possibility. It is a form that has fascinated mathematicians, artists, and philosophers throughout history. And now, in the hands of acclaimed poet Joyce Sidman and celebrated artist Rick Allen, the circle takes center stage in a captivating exploration of its beauty and significance.

Round is a poetic tour de force that celebrates the circle's pervasive presence in the natural world, from the tiniest dewdrop to the vast expanse of the cosmos. Sidman's lyrical verses capture the essence of the circle's unique properties, revealing its ability to both contain and connect, to enclose and to liberate. Allen's stunning watercolor illustrations bring Sidman's words to life, creating a visual symphony that complements the text perfectly.
