

Save Me a Seat: A Story of Friendship and Acceptance

About the Book

Save Me a Seat is a heartwarming story about the power of friendship and acceptance. It follows the story of two very different boys, Joe and Ravi, who become friends despite their differences. Joe is a popular and outgoing boy, while Ravi is shy and introverted. Joe is always getting into trouble, while Ravi is always trying to stay out of it. But when Joe stands up for Ravi against a bully, their friendship begins to blossom.

Save Me a Seat is a must-read for any child who has ever felt different or alone. It teaches the importance of acceptance and shows that even the most different people can become friends.
